

THE PRESIDENT'S NEPHEW

Played in the Last Half of the Great Football Game.

In the great game of football played at San Francisco on Thanksgiving day between the Stanford and California University teams; Charles S. Dole, an Hawaiian boy, played for Stanford in the latter part of the game, being substituted for Frankenhimer, the great halfback, who was injured. A coast exchange gave him the following write-up the day before the game:

The two halfback substitutes of Stanford's team are Charles S. Dole, '98, and Forrest Fisher, '98, both of whom are very promising men and whose play, for the short time they have been in training, is of high grade.

Charles Dole was born in Honolulu and is a nephew of the present ruler of the Sandwich Islands. He is 22 years old and is making economics his chief study here. Dole is 5 feet 11 inches tall and brings down the beam to 167 pounds. He is a born athlete and enters in every possible physical contest. He is champion all-around athlete of the Young Men's Christian Association in this State. Dole played his first football last year and was made substitute on the team. He is a very speedy player and keeps his head in a hot game. At backing up the line he is as strong as any back except Frankenhimer, and his bucking and tackling are of no mean order.

Hood's Saved Their Lives

Poisoned by Impure Water Now in Good Health, Lively, Happy

Eva, Carroll and Lily Brown Stowe, Vermont.

C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.: "Gentlemen:—Last winter, my two girls, boy and wife were taken ill. The doctors said they were poisoned by drinking water from an old well. The two girls failed to rally under the doctor's treatment. Eva, aged four years, fell away so she only weighed 18 lbs.; coughed all the time and was helpless. Physicians said

She Had Consumption. Lily, aged eight years, was nearly as bad as Eva but being older and stronger, held up a little better. We gave them both Hood's Sarsaparilla, which built up their strength and health fully so that they became fat and plump, lively and happy. My son Carroll was in a bad condition, having a bad cough and very weak. He was obliged to lie down most of the time. One bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla put him on his feet and restored perfect health. I believe Hood's Sarsaparilla saved my children's lives." JOHN T. BROWN, Stowe, Vermont.

"A BUILDING BURNED RECENTLY in Milwaukee, without insurance, because a clerk FORGOT to renew certain policies promptly as instructed. "He was discharged.

"A few days later, the owner died without insurance on his life, leaving a widow and three young children in poverty, because he had NEGLECTED to insure. As procrastination is more culpable than forgetfulness perhaps the owner is having his punishment NOW.
